

Curriculum Vitae:
ANA LUIZA MORAIS SOARES

PhD Candidate at University of Illinois at Chicago
Department of Anthropology
Behavioral Sciences Building Room 2159A
1007 West Harrison Street
Chicago, Illinois 60607-7139
Phone (312) 413-3570

EDUCATION:

M.A. in Anthropology at University of Illinois at Chicago
M.S. in Cultural Anthropology at Federal University of Amazonas
B.A. in History at Federal University of Viçosa

RESEARCH INTERESTS:

Interested in Ethnohistory of Brazil, especially in the role of indigenous people in the nineteenth century Manaus.

PUBLICATIONS:

Soares, Ana Luiza.

2014 Os indígenas na cidade de Manaus: entre a invisibilidade e a assimilação [The indigenous people of Manaus: between invisibility and assimilation]. Masters' dissertation, Federal University of Amazonas - Manaus.

2013 Indigenous history in the nineteenth century: the context for discussion of the indigenous presence in the urbanization of Manaus. XXVII History National Symposium.

2013 Indigenous history: ethnogenesis and ethnification. X Reunión de Antropología del Mercosul, Córdoba, p. 1-13.

Soares, Ana Luiza M., Roger A. L. Silva, and Alvaro Antunes.

2009. Popular Education and Pre university courses: the limits and possibilities of teaching history. Simpósio de Ensino da UFV.

Andrade, E., Rogerio Henriques, Ana Luiza Soares, Carlos Assis, and Gabriel Esper.

2009. The Art of the Twentieth Century with the exaltation of all the senses. Contemporâneos: Revista de Artes e Humanidades (Online).

GRANTS AND FELLOWSHIPS:

External Graduate Fellowships Awarded:

- Science Without Borders, CAPES (Brazil). To develop PhD research at University of Illinois at Chicago. July 2015 – July 2019. Administered by LASPAU – Harvard.
- CAPES (Brazil) to develop masters' research at Federal University of Amazonas. March 2012 – March 2014

Internal Grants Awarded:

- Chancellor's Award. 2016.

Internal Grants Applied:

- Laurette Kirstein Scholarship. 2016, 2017.
- Rue Bucher Memorial Award. 2017.
- Provost. Spring 2017.

LECTURES PARTICIPATION:

Invited Lectures:

Soares, Ana Luiza Morais

2014 Indígenas e Negros na transição Império-República na Amazônia: Legislação e Urbanização [Indigenous and African-Brazilians in the transition between Empire and Republic: Legislation and Urbanization]. Federal University of Western Pará.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES:

- Portuguese – native speaker
- English – proficient
- Spanish – proficient
- French – understand and read reasonably

EXPERTISE

Experienced in historical archival research, with emphasis in the nineteenth century documents.

TEACHING:

- Federal University of Western Pará – Juruti, Pará, Brazil
 - Professor of History
 - June 2014 – August 2014
 - Taught “History of Amazonia II” classes to undergraduate students; designed curriculum; assessed and evaluated student performance
- Federal University of Western Pará – Itaituba, Pará, Brazil
 - Professor of History
 - January 2014 – March 2014
 - Taught “History of Imperial Brazil” classes to undergraduate students; designed curriculum; assessed and evaluated student performance
- Lato Sensus Education Center – Manaus, Amazonas, Brazil
 - Teacher of History
 - February 2011 – December 2011
 - Taught History of Brazil to middle school students; designed curriculum; assessed and evaluated student performance
- Federal University of Viçosa – Rio Paranaíba, Minas Gerais, Brazil

- Substitute Professor of Social Science
- March 2010 – August 2010
- Taught “Anthropology of food and eating”, “Sociology”, and “Methodology of scientific research” classes to undergraduate students; designed curriculum; assessed and evaluated student performance.